Challenges

Technological competence and matching the ever-increasing expectation/need of client is the biggest challenge for any organization surviving today. Cloudsuite has the same burning desire of exceeding customer's expectations every time and surprise them with their consistent fusion of technology with HR products. Simplifying voluminous task into smaller bits, increasing the efficiency of processes and providing optimum results in time are the benchmarks before selecting any 3rd party tool for their end product suite.

RChilli Contribution

Rchilli, since its inception worked strenuously on the same guidelines for bettering of Resume Analytics in any organization. Rchilli resume parser proved ideal for the end-to-end HR product mix and served customers coherently. Customers left the resume Analytics solely to parser, which extracted the resume in 74+ fields, later run searches on it to find the ideal matches. 1-in-all Doc converter supported all formats (doc, docx, Pdf) and was able to read resumes in Non-English, Euro pass, Chinese, French, German and many other languages.
